Dear Dennis:

I am sending you a copy of the 5th edition of The Early Paper Money of America because you have contributed so much to numismatic publications by your enthusiasm and guidance. Although this was published by ^{another} than your firm I am sure that everyone in the field has ^{and be influenced by} read "How to Succeed in Numismatic Publishing (by Really Trying)".

Keep up the great work.

Eric

Dear Eric:

Thank you very much for sending me a copy of The Early Paper Money of America—what a nice surprise in today's mail! I've already spent some time skimming the book this afternoon, and will really dig in this weekend.

I also appreciate your kind words about "How to Succeed in Numismatic Publishing (By Really Trying)." The Asylum article was based on a presentation I gave at the Memphis Paper Money show a couple years ago. I've been a collector since age 7 or so, and communications has been my career since college; combining the two at Whitman Publishing has been a wonderful experience.

Best wishes,

Dennis Tucker
